

2016 Eva Rosow Award Recipient

Connie Raub

Connie Raub is a licensed Real Estate Broker in the State of Texas and the Executive Vice President of Investment Realty Company, L.C. Connie's Real Estate Career began in 2006 when her husband, Steve Raub, realized she had great research and networking skills and suggested she join his firm and work in the commercial real estate industry assisting him. Two years later, Connie and her husband purchased Investment Realty Company, a company founded in 1975, from Steve's retiring partners. Together they began to grow the company, adding Agents, Brokers, Internship Programs, Services and New Investment Opportunities. She is an active Broker working with clients on Sales, Leasing, both Landlord and Tenant Representation and Property Management.

Connie Raub is a magna cum laude graduate of Seattle University, Seattle, Washington with a Bachelor of Arts in Education. Her broad working experience includes owning and operating a retail business. In addition, Mrs. Raub has had extensive experience working in the arena of commercial insurance sales, public relations, non-profit fundraising, and has served in executive roles in the nonprofit sector and as an educator. Currently, she is a member and active with the following organizations: San Antonio Greater Chamber of Commerce, National Assn. of Realtors (NAR), Texas Assn. of Realtors (TAR), South Texas Association of Realtors (STCAR.), Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW), San Antonio CCIM Chapter, International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC), Real Estate Council San Antonio (RESCA).

Ms. Raub believes in embracing the challenge of learning new things. She is an advocate for being a mentor of others, believing as we help others grow and learn, we too improve. She is truly humbled by all those that have gone before her in the receipt of the prestigious Eva Rosow award and prays that she will continually perform at a level that is deserving of such an honor.
